Synopsis

Dossier

The puppeteer begins his classic performance when suddenly... bang!! the strings come loose.

When the puppet comes to life, the relationship between them is reinvented and both of them prepare to surprise the audience with a show of object manipulation, theatrical dynamics where the spectator becomes the protagonist, and a final fire number.

A poetic and absurd look at a clueless puppeteer and a clownish puppet, a comic vision of roles and hierarchies in human relationships. A show that awakens the desire to play again.
